PERSONAL MENTION.

—Mr. J. Norcross has gone to Florida for his health.

—Honorable Amos T. Akerman, of Carterville, was in the city yesterday.

—Mr. W. A. Thomas of Athens, is visiting the city.

—Mr. W. F. Curry, of Milldeed, is in the city.

—Mr. Frank Bidley, of Lafayette, is in the city. He is on his way to Nashville where he will study medicine at Vanderbilt university.

—We were gratified to hear that Master

Peter Grant was much better yesterday.

His physician, Dr. West, Ireland, thinks he is kept quiet and carefully nursed, he may recover.

—Mr. Frank D. Hatfield, the veteran operator of circuses, has been successful in the history of Atlanta presented every family within her borders a case of protection, is again with us and purchases at an early day to reveal his supplanted attention to our dirt and and distribute it. His headquarters were over the Pacific coast, dispensing free salvation (from dirt) to the Mormons, Mo-hicans and other so-called people of Panama to Puget's sound. Nowhere in all his travels has Mr. Hatfield found such a promising missionary field for his pencil as Atlanta. He says, "the great understanding of the land is wisdom. A view of cleanliness—wisdom is declared "next to godliness" in the Joe Smith bible—throughout it, I imagined such an epidemic of dirt, and I was solving the Mormon question by a sudden and general accession of the saints to Bri-gman's lesson. If the country were the scale of civilization," Frank considered California the most civilized coun-

DECISIONS RENDERED JAN. 14, 1919.

Hon. Brian Warner, Chief Justice; Hon. Logan E. Blackley and James Jackson, Judges. Reported by Jackson & Lumpkin, Supreme Court Reporters.

O'Byrne et al. vs. Feely et al. Ejectment, from Chatham.

WARNER, C. J.

This was an action of ejectment for certain described real estate in the city of Savannah, and venue proper.

Both parties claimed title through the will of Lawrence O'Byrne, who died in 1899.

The devise embracing the property in dispute is as follows, viz:

5th item, "I give and bequeath unto my son James Jeremiah, (after paying the legal expenses of the estate, the whole of my real and personal estate, consisting of houses, lands, tenements, negroes &c as will apply to the said estate, in and to the western, to have and to hold the same for his use as specified in the following viz:

to receive all the proceeds of the rents, interests &c which may accrue from the property for his own and special use, after deducting the necessary expenses on the same property—but in no case whatever shall he be allowed until he shall have re-
